

LOCAL LATINOS HEADLINERS

speakers at TEDx Ubud.

The guys from La Bomba, who got their start at Cafe Havana on Jl Suweta, are already familiar with super-enthusiastic audiences.

Their South American-inspired music is catchy, their voices strong and beautiful and their Spanish pretty darn good. Few people in their audience know that these five guys created the band in their spare time and only stepped on the Café Havana stage from their real jobs – as the resto's waiters, security, bartender and cook – when the regular Kuta-based band failed to show up. That was less than a year ago.

Find La Bomba at Café Havana most nights. And if you like dancing salsa, ask one of the staff to partner you – they all dance!

What a success story! Ubud's own Cuban band takes to the "international" stage on June 1, as headliners for the evening concert after a great day of inspiring Indonesian and international
